PREFACE.

Among a number of early deeds and other papers relating to Plymouth County, Massachusetts, long in the possession of the writer, is the original manuscript of the list of names appearing in the following pages.

The list is headed by Major Samuel Thaxter, Sergeant Thomas Andrews and Cornet Samuel Lincoln, followed by others bearing the names of the first settlers of Hingham in 1636–1639.

The names are evidently in the handwriting of Joshua Tucker, one of the Selectmen, the warrant written by James Hawke, Town Clerk, they are printed as they appear in the manuscript.

As the fate of old records is more or less uncertain it has been thought advisable to preserve this list of names in printed form for the use of genealogists and others who may be interested in the inhabitants of Hingham in the year 1711.
